TO: ALL ADULTS IN CUSTODYDATE: NOVEMBER 30, 2022

This month Oregon voters passed Ballot Measure (BM) 112, which amends Article 1, Section 34 of the Oregon Constitution. BM 112 removes language from Oregon's Constitution that permitted the state to impose involuntary servitude as a punishment for persons convicted of crime. Passage of BM 112 does not change the constitutional requirement that adults in custody (AICs) work, and it does not entitle AICs to minimum wage. Adults in custody are still required under Article 1, Section 41 of the Oregon Constitution to actively engage in full-time work or on-the-job training, which may include education.

PARA: TODOS LOS ADULTOS BAJO CUSTODIAFECHA: 30 DE NOVIEMBRE DE 2022

Este mes, los votantes de Oregon aprobaron la Medida electoral (BM) 112, que modifica el Artículo 1, Sección 34 de la Constitución de Oregon. BM 112 elimina el lenguaje de la Constitución de Oregon que permitía al estado imponer la servidumbre involuntaria como castigo para las personas condenadas por un delito.

La aprobación de la BM 112 no cambia el requisito constitucional de que los adultos bajo custodia (AIC) trabajen, y no da derecho a los AIC al salario mínimo. Los adultos bajo custodia todavía están obligados bajo el Artículo 1, Sección 41 de la Constitución de Oregon a participar activamente en un trabajo de tiempo completo o capacitación en el trabajo, que puede incluir educación.
