Multimedia Podcast and Video

"Cellblocks to Mountaintops" is a multimedia podcast with a companion video series. It delves into how America addresses violence, defines justice, and seeks accountability through the compelling journey of one man. Years after committing a horrific crime, former OSP AIC, Sterling Cunio, confronts the full ripple effects of the harm he caused. Through artistic expression, human connections, and inspired by restorative justice principles, he undergoes a remarkable personal transformation during decades in prison.

This story serves as a poignant reminder that hope, healing, and redemption are never beyond reach, even in the darkest of places.

SECURITY

Mainline Showers

The mainline showers are being renovated. The renovations will be completed one side at a time.

The good news is that once the renovations are done mainline showers will have shower stalls which will increase privacy. These will be similar to shower stalls already available at other DOC facilities. Unfortunately, one side of the showers will be closed during the renovation.

We are sorry for the inconvenience this will cause, but believe the population will be happy with the end result. Thank you for your patience during the construction.

/s/ R. Adamson, Asst. Superintendent Security

Once you have had your blood drawn, I will schedule you in the next couple of weeks to go over your results. Please feel free to send me an AIC communication to remind me. If you have had your lab drawn and are still waiting for your results, please send me an AIC communication to let me know.
