SRCA Seeks Recipes for AIC Cookbook

The SRCA Club is gathering recipes and wants your ideas to include in an AIC Cookbook! The SRCA will be conducting a fundraiser to pre-sell these AIC Cookbooks to the SRCI population in the near future, compiled with recipes from these submissions. The recipes can be made of any items that are available for sale on Canteen, but may not include any contraband items. You will need to include an ingredients list with necessary measurements (cup, teaspoon, tablespoon, dash, etc) and instructions on how they should be combined or cooked. Please identify whether the recipe is for a breakfast, lunch, dinner, a snack, or a dessert. You will also need to note if the dish is cooked via a microwave or the 190 hot water option.

All submissions will be subject to review by the SRCA Club members and security staff. You are required to sign your name to your work—anonymous or unidentifiable chef submissions will not be accepted. Multiple submissions from the same chef are welcome and encouraged. The SRCA Club members will vote on which recipes to include. If you are interested in participating, please send written submissions the SRCA Club at mailbox B250. Submissions are due by March 14th.

The Snake River Community Alliance (SRCA) Club is a diverse team of AICs aimed at working towards promoting The Oregon Way goals by encouraging pro-social behaviors and improving communication and collaboration between AICs and staff.

Special Religious Observances

For facility planning and programming purposes there are sign-up deadlines and requirements for special religious observances including the following religious traditions: Judaism, Islam, Asatru, Druid, Pagan, Odinist, Wicca, Buddhism, Catholic/Protestant, LDS, Native American, Jehovah Witness. AICs who want to participate in special religious observances should contact the Chapel for information at least two months before any special religious observances dates to ensure they meet those deadline requirements. The Chapel will then provide information regarding sign-up requirements and deadlines. The Chaplain is not responsible for AICs who fail to meet the sign-up deadline. Exceptions include AICs who have recently transferred into the facility.
