SRCA TO HOST END OF SUMMER BBQ AND CONCERT

The SRCA Club will host an End of Summer Concert & BBQ fundraiser on the Complex 1 Yard on Saturday, September 27th during the regularly scheduled night yard. This event is open to all NCI Level 3 AIC residing in Complex 1.

Participating AICs will receive two hot dogs, a bag of chips, and a specialty drink (TBD) upon entry to the event. They will then be invited to find a spot to sit in the grass and enjoy their meal while listening to the AIC band The Lost Boys play some tunes. All items must be consumed prior to departing the yard in accordance with the SRCA AIC Handbook.

Interested AICs who are NCI Level 3 and live on Complex 1 will need to send a completed CD28 to the SRCA Club at mailbox B250 by Tuesday, September 9th. Cost is $8.00 each (limited to one meal per AIC).

All proceeds would go to the Youth Music Project in West Linn, Oregon, which aims to transform children's lives through the power of music by providing music lessons, opportunities, tuition assistance, instrument rentals, and performance and recording opportunities. The Youth Music Project is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization run by educators, musicians, administrators, board members, and volunteers who believed that every student deserves access to exceptional music education opportunities, regardless of family income level. SRCA hopes to be able to replicate this event for the other SRCA Complexes in the near future.

The Snake River Community Alliance (SRCA) Club is a diverse team of AICs aimed at working towards promoting The Oregon Way goals by encouraging pro-social behaviors and improving communication and collaboration between AICs and staff.
