Mailroom hot topics regarding publication violations:

Each issue of every publication is reviewed individually. Some editions or issues comply with the Oregon Administrative Rules (OAR) and are approved for distribution, while others are found to be in violation and are therefore not allowed. This has always been the standard review process for all magazines.

In the case of Strip LV, approximately 550 different editions/issues have been evaluated over the past ten years. Of those, about 430 were approved for distribution, while approximately 120 were rejected for failing to meet OAR standards.

The initial review is conducted by Administrative Specialists assigned to the mailrooms at each facility. If an edition or issue is believed to be in violation of the OAR, it undergoes a second-level review by the Department of Corrections' Chief of Security before being formally rejected statewide. All twelve facilities use the same approved/rejected list, which is integrated into the statewide software system used to process all incoming mail.

The standards used in this review process are outlined in Oregon Administrative Rule 291-131.

If you would like more information regarding the specific reason an issue was rejected, you may request an Administrative Review, if appropriate, by submitting a kytic to the Superintendent's Office. Additional details about this process can be found in the OAR referenced above and on the Violation Notices.

GROUP LIVING

Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA)

In 2003 the federal government enacted the Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA). In May 2012, the US Department of Justice released its final rule in accordance with PREA. The purpose of this law is to reduce sexual abuse and sexual harassment in confinement settings by focusing on prevention, detection, and response.

The Oregon Department of Corrections fully supports the guidelines set forth in this law and remains committed to a zero-tolerance policy for sexual abuse and sexual harassment and retaliation for reporting an incident. Sexual abuse or harassment from other AICs or staff is never okay and never your fault. There are some key things you can do to protect yourself from being a victim.

- Avoid isolated or secluded areas
- Be aware of your body language
- Never share personal information
- Never borrow canteen items
- Never accept gifts from another AIC
- Be cautious of AICs offering to protect you
- Report all acts of violence against you

If you are the victim of sexual abuse or sexual harassment, your best defense is to report the incident as quickly as possible. There are multiple ways to report, including reporting anonymously.

- In person to any staff
- Through an AIC communication
- Through the grievance system
- Call the Inspector General's Hotline (Pick up handset, make language selection and dial "91")
- Write the Governor's Office (State Capitol, Room Suite 254, 900 Court St., Salem, Oregon 97301), and you can request to remain anonymous
- Friends or family can report on your behalf (877- 831-0389)

You can be assured that the information will be received in a confidential manner.

If you have been victimized, it is important to remember not to wash away the evidence.

- Don't shower
- Don't remove or wash your clothes
- Don't brush your teeth

The Department of Corrections rules prohibit any form of sexual activity. Beyond rules, forced or coerced sexual behavior is a criminal offense and the department will take every action possible to hold perpetrators accountable, including prosecution resulting in additional time in prison.
