PICKLEBALL SEASON BEGINS IN MARCH!

The Recreation Department is excited to announce the start of Pickleball season this march at SRCI! Pickleball will be available to the Adults in Custody (AIC) population through complex-specific callouts only based on each complex's operational schedule. Watch for your complex schedule and sign up through Recreation when your callout becomes available. There will be NO Pickleball available during open gym time Callouts. Participation Eligibility: • Authorized for Incentive Level 2 and Incentive Level 3 AICs. • Participants must remain in good standing to continue involvement. • Sign up in advance through call-out list • Commit to scheduled time blocks • Agree to equipment responsibility care. Pickleball is more than just a game—it's an opportunity to improve physical fitness, mental focus, and overall well-being. The sport promotes cardiovascular health, coordination, agility, and positive social interaction. It also provides a structured way to relieve stress, build healthy routines, and practice discipline and teamwork. Participation in recreation programs like Pickleball helps strengthen both individual accountability and community respect. Please remember • Pickleball is a privilege, not a right • Good sportsmanship and respectful conduct are required at all times • Equipment must be handled with care to ensure long-term use and availability • A safe, positive, and healthy athletic environment depends on everyone's cooperation. By treating each other and the equipment with respect, we can maintain a program that benefits everyone throughout the season. Let's make this a safe, competitive, and successful Pickleball season!

THOUGHTS TO PONDER **fools spring-expect the unexpected** Western Treasure Valley often teases us with a warm day in February, hinting that spring has arrived. Then, just as quickly, winter returns. This is called a “Fool’s Spring,” and it’s a reminder that change doesn’t always come on our schedule.

Your growth works the same way. One week, you might feel like you’re making progress, then setbacks appear. That’s normal. What matters is staying consistent and patient, even when things feel unpredictable. Small choices—showing restraint, reflecting, or practicing a new skill—are your steady ground. They keep your growth rooted, even when circumstances shift. Like Fool’s Spring, progress can be quiet and unexpected. Trust the process, and don’t give up because the path isn’t linear.

BHM MOVIE EVENT AT THE SNAKE RIVER CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTION EVENT UPDATE!!

February 2026 marks Black History Month, and THE SRCI planned to host Complex specific gym showings of Sinners, an award-winning film celebrating Black excellence in acting, storytelling, and film making. The response was extraordinary—nearly one-third of the SRCI population signed up to participate.

Because so many of our population expressed interest, we are moving the event from the gyms to the housing unit TV viewing systems to ensure everyone has an opportunity to watch. Our goal is full access and inclusion, so no one misses out on this important Black History Month event. While gym capacity limits and operational considerations were factors, the primary reason for this change is the overwhelming level of participation and support from THE SRCI population.

Sinners will air throughout the day on February 28 and March 1. Scheduled viewing times will be posted. One free bag of popcorn will be provided to the entire eligible population on Saturday, February 28

Thank you for your strong support in recognizing Black History Month! We encourage everyone to participate in this Black History Month event-come watch a great movie, recognize the impact of Black excellence in film, and enjoy the experience together. Celebrate history. Celebrate culture. Celebrate community.
