We have received a number of TV's returned stating they were broken to begin with when it is not the case.

Please advise AIC's that once money is taken its a final sale.

To get the TV fixed it will go through the warranty procedure and be sent out. No credits will be issued.

All questions or inquiries should be made to the Northwest Commissary.

HEALTH SERVICES

TB Test Changes

The ODOC is changing the way we test for tuberculosis. Previously, we were giving all AICs skin tests (PPD) on admission to the ODOC and then yearly. We will no longer be doing this. Now, we will offer a one-time T-Spot, which is a blood test, and then AICs will be called up yearly for an interview about their TB status. If an AIC refuses the T-Spot, they will have an opportunity to have a two step PPD (two skin tests a few weeks apart) or be placed on daily TB monitoring. Please kyte Nurse Carmen Lewis or Nurse Manager Karen Wright if you have any questions about the TB testing process.
